DEDICATION

ONCE UPON A TIME

We went to school
In a great white fortress,
The proud home of Knowledge.
To this fortress we dedicate our book
For Wisdom is the Key to Life.

Principal's Message

The BLUE PONY annual brings to its subscribers an excellent graphic record of student affairs in Havre High School. From its pages one recognizes those individuals who share in activities, those who contributed to the well-being of the school through participation, those who demonstrated ability to work with the people about them, those who gave generously of time and talent for the welfare of team-mates in clubs and sports.

It appears true that one's whole high school record is a reliable forecast of what to expect of one in life. One's record of work in classes is part of the story. The friends one makes, the companions he enjoys, his loyalties, his efforts for his friends and school community, is another part. One's ability and personality constitute another part that helps to interpret one's record.

I salute those students who plan their efforts to include all phases of personal growth, and congratulate those members of the BLUE PONY staff who have so faithfully contributed to prepare this annual.

George B. McMillan

Superintendent's Message

Greetings:

I should like to express my greetings and best wishes to all the students of Havre High School, by means of these few words. All the rest of us wish to compliment the Blue Pony Annual Staff and Sponsors for this 1951 picture of Havre High School activities. They have made a fine contribution to those worthwhile things we take with us and treasure.

When we look at the hectic world about us, we cannot help but wonder how we can best meet the existing and the unforeseen problems to be encountered. Deep thought will tell us that we cannot do it alone. We need Divine help and Guidance. With this thought in mind, let us do our utmost to prepare ourselves to the best of our ability, so we may be ready to meet any eventualities that may arise. With Divine help and our own readiness, we may hope to see clear skies ahead.

The Kidnapped of '51

Once upon a time, when the gallant class of '51 were young and eager, they left their happy homes to go to a great fortress where the ruling king was knowledge and his conquest was the only way to reach the door and freedom. This king was a mighty giant who never slept as he guarded the fortress door. The only passwords he would accept were "in praise of a task well done."

Now even in our youthful state our class of '51 felt that we should go free, and off we dashed from our grade school door to dive deep into our swimming pool and other summer pleasures.

Our freedom was short. September came, and school, and the Senior Class. On Monday, the first signs of trouble appeared. The threatening Seniors held secret class meetings. Barons, Leading officers and effective organizations our class could only stand tentatively by and watch the Seniors preparing for our destruction. Finally coming the blow fell. Heavily armed bands of vicious Seniors radiated out from the school in all directions catching us Freshmen without even the most primitive weapons with which to offer token resistance.

The Seniors lost no time in making their long range strategy plan. To be sure to miss none of us they painted us vividly with lipstick. For the benefit of the blind Seniors they sprayed us liberally with strong perfume. By noon the last remnants of Freshmen resistance had been crushed and the Seniors moved swiftly to create a slave state. They demanded that we equip ourselves with primitive tools and guarded by armed seniors, who did not hesitate to use the paddle we had no choice but to work. By three thirty that afternoon the Seniors, sure of their rule, publicly made fun of us in front of the rest of the school. Then they banded us together and marched us over and through blinding heat and scorching cold to the football field. Many of our number almost perished on the way. But the cruel Seniors didn't hesitate to put us to work, cleaning and refurbishing the nation's Shrine. They gave us only meager sustenance, rations of cake which we worked. At last the Seniors allowed us to return to our homes with a stern warning to report to the gym promptly at nine. There, the Seniors once more made fun of us. Finally though, they came out of their rage and repented their sins very generously, allowing the Freshmen to have the paddles. We, of course, allowed the Seniors to escape with only slight warning. Thus was the ignominious initiation of the magnanimous class of '51.

When the new week opened the class of '51 rallied. As our president we elected 'Bratleg' Eiler and his assistant 'Pawpaw' Philipp was vice president. 'Bugsy' Fortin was secretary. So that we would have a voice in Student Council we appointed 'Now it's this way' Aaros, Don Philipp, Teddy Bear, Kim, 'Leave my car alone' Gerstenberger, and 'Big Swede' Swenson. With this diligent leadership we elected four of our glamorous classmates as cheerleaders. Lorne Gerstenberger, Rosalie Fortin, Patty Skeeter, and Katherine Wilkins. Kathy maintained this high position for all four years. As freshmen and sophomores we profited from the guidance of Miss Bond, Mrs. Skepp, Mrs. Esgren, Mrs. Cox, and Miss Rées.

With a year's experience behind us, we sophomores—Wise Fools—began a vigorous year. As leaders we chose president 'I'll get by' Eklensgard, vice president 'Appoint a committee' Watson and secretary-treasurer 'Sam's Song' Fortin. Our statesmen on the Council were 'Princess' Jenkins, 'Fatso' Shawee, Jerry Gerstenberger and "I get here at eight" Blair.

The first social event we decorated for was our Valentine's Day Dance. We exhausted ourselves blowing countless balloons and hanging up cut out hearts. This dance was a success because it followed a Havre Missoula basketball game. On April Fools Day we attempted to start a school tradition for the neglected sophomores. We all dressed in April Fool costumes. Evidently we weren't clever! Our second big social event was a St. Patrick's Dance for which we decorated in the Irish tradition.

At the spring Honor Day assembly we were reminded that Maurice Tokensgard and Wesley Ulmer were members of the Pony Football team.

Our Junior year we were led by "Tremor" Griggs, Don Philipp, and Rosalie Fortin. During the year our magnificent Student Council representatives were "The Minuteless" Daum, "Speechless" Harty, "Spotless" Lauges, and "The Car Mechanic" Newby.

During the year our dynamic class decorated for a Side Hawk as Day Dance and the Junior Prom. Our Prom theme was MOONGLOW, done in rainbow colors with enough silver stars left over to decorate part of the Senior Soiree. From all reports it was a roaring success. A garden bridge, so strongly constructed that venturesome couples could enjoy the thrill of dancing upon it formed the centerpiece, the pride and joy of the Junior Class. Our decorations were organized by JoAnne Galas and Felina Hill. The boys receiving H's in sports were Ed and Hal Warren, Margels, Maurice Tokensgard, Bill Pepin, Dale Singer, Wesley Ulmer, Dan Mecher, and Ted Kato. During the school year Bill Erhart won the D.A.R. American History Award, Elaine Almos won the local V.F.W. Essay contest, Jerry Gerstenberger served as Student Body vice president, and Franklin Clakeman, Betty Lu Kiesang, Rosalie Sylte, and Gene Watson were elected into the National Honor Society. As a final gesture of the year the budget-conscious juniors were sweetly persuaded by Mr. Peters to purchase four gigantic baskets of flowers for Senior Week. During the summer Rosalie Sylte attended Girls State, Maurice Tokensgard, Felina Hill, Leo Clark, Franklin Clakeman, Gene Watson, Lorna Boone, and Ted Kato represented us at Boys State, Lorna Faber attended the F.H.A. National Convention at Kansas City, and Alice Medchill was present at the Publications Pow-Wow at Missoula.

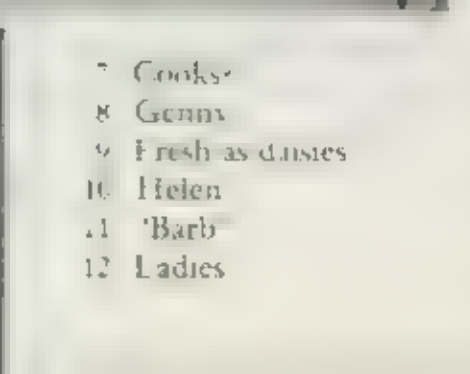

Returning for a fourth year of school the disgraced Senior class discovered the largest, most rebellious, heretofore freshman class in Havre's history. To our complete outrage we were faced by an administrative rule that our study paddles be replaced by newspapers. With amended regulations we initiated the Freshmen with due ceremony.

For our Senior Year we elected Gene Watson, "Huckins" Daniels, Lorna Faber, and Art Daum as officers. Senior members of Student Council were "I know the answer" Clakeman, "Eskimo" Roe, Elaine Almos and "Mr. Huss is wrong" Kiesang. Sherla Harty was Student Body president and "Black note" Sylte Student Body secretary-treasurer. Our advisors for our junior and senior years were Miss Paugh, Miss Schell, Mr. Huss, Mr. Norman, and Miss Harstad.

Early in the year we started decorating for the Senior Soiree. Our theme was BLACK MAGIC worked out with rabbits and black hats. After paying $75 for an orchestra we were compelled to sell tickets at the dance. However, this maneuver put us back among the living financially so that in the end we will be able to have this history printed in the Annual. The Seniors showed their efficiency and cooperativeness by the ease and speed with which they planned and decorated for their formal. Betty Lu Kiesang and Donna Rapp were in charge of this decorating.

One of our outstanding class groups during our High School years was our trio made up of Ruth McKinsey, Patty Sleeter, and Alice Medchill.

So it is after four long years and many accomplishments, great and small, the Senior Class of '51 came to their Senior Week and final graduation. At last the fortress doors are open and the class which served as a cited spirit's free once again. With Knowledge as a partner we now hope to make our mark upon the world. At this moment we admit a poignant regret that our High School years are over.

Slumber Party?!!

Junior Class History

The Class of '52 is one of the most active organizations in school. Our activity of the year is the Junior-Senior Prom. It is still too early in the year to reveal our plans to the school but our success with the "Sadie Hawkins Day" dance gave all our friends a sample of our cooperation when we go into action. For this occasion we had our hall decorated with large sized figures of Elmer Abner and Daisy May. Fun was had by all!

Our class entered its Junior year in a mood for success. We had broken class tradition last year with our Sophomore picnic—dare we mention it? We decided to carry on in a more honorable tradition. Our most successful individual activities were in the field of athletics where we are well represented by such basketball and football players as Gary Grant, Dick Caldwell, Jim Eriksen, Tak Nimi, Bill Murray, and Bob Gehl. A large percentage of us are also participating in vocal and band. Many of us have been active in dramas. We have had a liberal part in the Thespian skits and the school play where Tom Gunderson, Karen Ikegami, and Marilyn Olson had outstanding parts. At the time this annual went to press, those of us who had qualified for the National Honorary Thespian organization were Judy Elert, Tom Gunderson, Mickey MacMillan, and Patty Kezar.

In this our third year of high school the class elected as President, Tak Nimi; Vice President, Bill Murray; and Secretary-Treasurer, Josephine Faltrino. Our Student Council Representatives are Grant Lang, Orland Elson, Josephine Faltrino, and Bryan Dow. Our faculty advisors are Mr. Moon (Chairman), Mr. Carlson, Mr. Seelinger, and Miss Young.

Sophomore Class History

We, the Class of '53 entered H.H.S. for our second term less green and more acquainted with the traditions and halls of Havre High. We are proud to say that our class shared many of the highlights in the activity field and the names of many sophomores were listed on the academic honor roll during the year.

Those of us who have shown great ability in the dramatics field are JoAnn Larson, Robert Bailey and Wayne Olson. We were represented in the all school play by Wayne Olson. We have many athletes in our class who have earned letters, among them are the Don'Inneys, Paul Froehson and Charles Leonard. The coaches say that many of the sophomores who have turned out for basketball show promise. Our school spirit is shown by having two of our class among the cheerleaders. They are Elaine Hall and Margaret Tietema.

We chose President, Charles Vick; Vice-President, Jim Hinds; and Secretary-Treasurer, Kenneth Thomas to lead us through this year. Our faculty sponsors were Miss Rees (Chairman), Miss Hulm, Miss Hoffman, and Mr. Gunderson. Our Council representatives were Kenneth Thomas, Vivian Knudsvig, Frances Anderson, and Pete Connell.

Freshman Class History

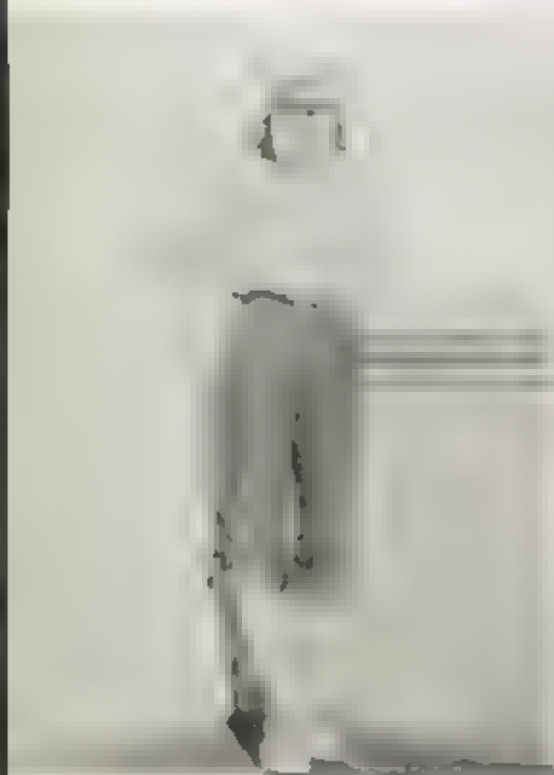

Scrub hard

We the Freshmen were brought into H.H.S. with the Class of '50 doing the honors. That day, Sept. 8, 1950, will be one for us to remember! It started early—very early. From morning till night we were well supplied with lipstick and the strong essence of perfume. Our problem of transportation was well taken care of with paddles and our own two feet. In the afternoon we were honored with an assembly. The most outstanding event was our beauty contest when Bobby McLeod, in a fascinating blue satin swimming suit, was named Miss H.H.S.

After a month of rest our class showed progress. Bobby McLeod was elected as a cheerleader. We became active in sports for Dick Wright, Conrad Elmes, Ken Wilson, Dick Banks, and Gaylord Jacobson are adding to our class progress. Many of our students took part in dramatic activities. Mrs. Ekegren says, "Over half of the enrollment of the Neophytes are freshmen. They show fine cooperation and talent." Three of our classmates Frances Guy, Janet Kennedy, and Barbara Cody were in the all school play, "Inner Willy." We are not only distinguishing ourselves in our activities but in our subjects as well. Many of our students made the honor roll throughout the year.

When we Freshmen learned the customs and rules of H.H.S., we became proud to be here and we hope in our years to come to follow the traditions of the classes before us. In this spirit we elected class officers as follows: President, Gary Dow, Vice-President, Connie Struck, and Secretary-Treasurer, Gaylord Jacobson. Our Faculty Committee was Mr. Roebuck, Mrs. Ekegren, Mr. Kees, and Mr. Swenson. Mr. Roebuck served as Chairman. Our Student Council representatives were Bob Gunderson, Gary Dow, Mary Travis, and Ollie May Purkett.

given December 2nd

Dad's Night

The 1950-51 Blue Pany Band completed a successful year. The 65 piece band under the direction of C. I. Carlson provided various entertainment throughout the year. The band was ever present in the activities of the school. Its purpose is to promote interest in music and music appreciation.

The band made many public appearances with two concerts holding the spotlight. Three football shows, Gray Nancies, Dad's Night, and Safety were given. Among the other appearances were pep tests, basketball games, not to mention the Havre Music Festival, Community Sing, and Great Falls District IV contest. The band did some traveling too. Trips to Chester and Great Falls were for the whole band, while the pep band went to a game at Great Falls. The Brass sextet was invited to a conference competition in Missoula the last week in March. The band formed a dance orchestra for the convenience of the students. They played for many of the school hops.

A CAPELLA CHOIR

The Mixed Chorus composed of a group of Havre High students was this year directed by Mr. Moreson. This group participated in the Christmas Cantata, the Community Sing and in many other events throughout the year. The Chorus also made a trip to Great Falls to hear the Concordia Choir.

Arna Lund is the leader of this group and the representatives from each section are Bessie Morran, Rosalie Sylte, Bryce Johnson, Tommy Boone, Vivian Knudsvig and Charles Dommer.

BAND CLUB

XMAS PARTY

The Band Club was newly organized this year. It consists of four selected members from each class and any other interested members of the Band. Gene Watson was elected chairman with Tom Boone as vice-chairman.

The club's purpose is to create interest in band work by planning parties, pep band trips to Great Falls, and by presenting out-of-town concerts. It makes the decisions for the band and plans its main activities. The transportation and music problems which came up for the out-of-town trips, were taken care of by the students themselves and they did good work.

For the first time in many years, the combined Music Departments had a Christmas party and a New Year party in the evening. This spring the band will participate in the District Music Meet to be held in Great Falls, and all problems will be taken care of by the Band Club.

The officers

Two students from each advisory are chosen to serve on the Student Council, the organization through which students can exercise the rules of democracy and participate, to some extent, in forming school policies and practices.

Officers elected in the mock political elections were: President, Sheila Harty; Vice-President, Tom Gunderson; Secretary-Treasurer, Rosalie Sylte

The chief duties of the council are to make up a calendar of dance dates and represent student voice in school government.

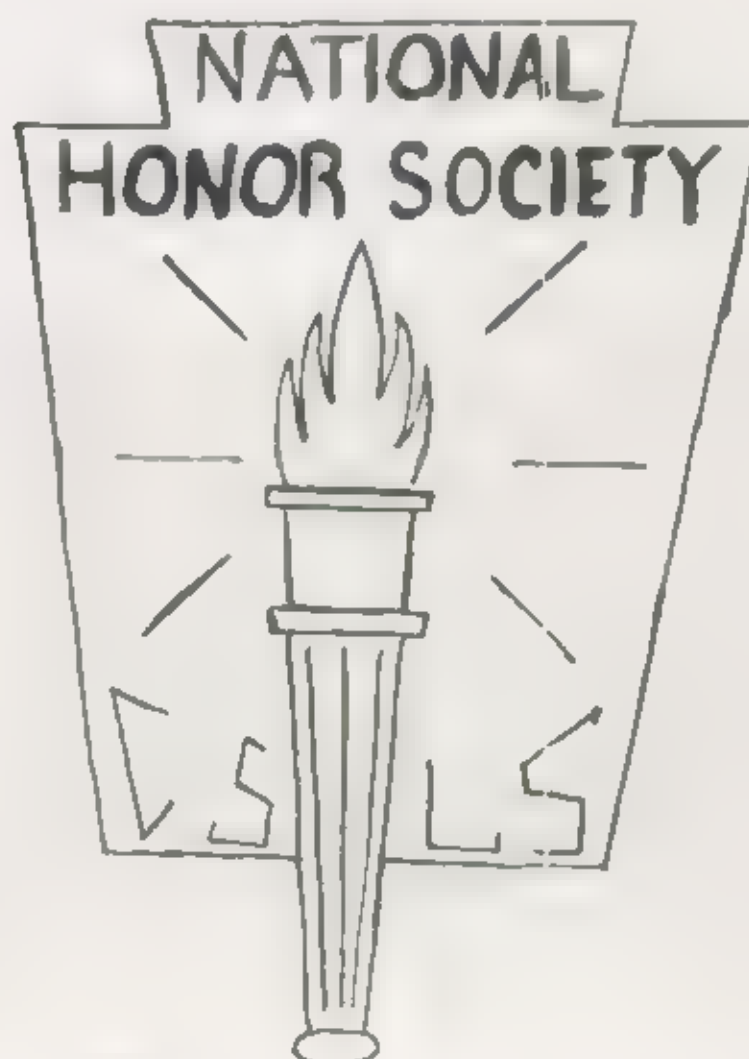

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY IS FOR SCHOLARS

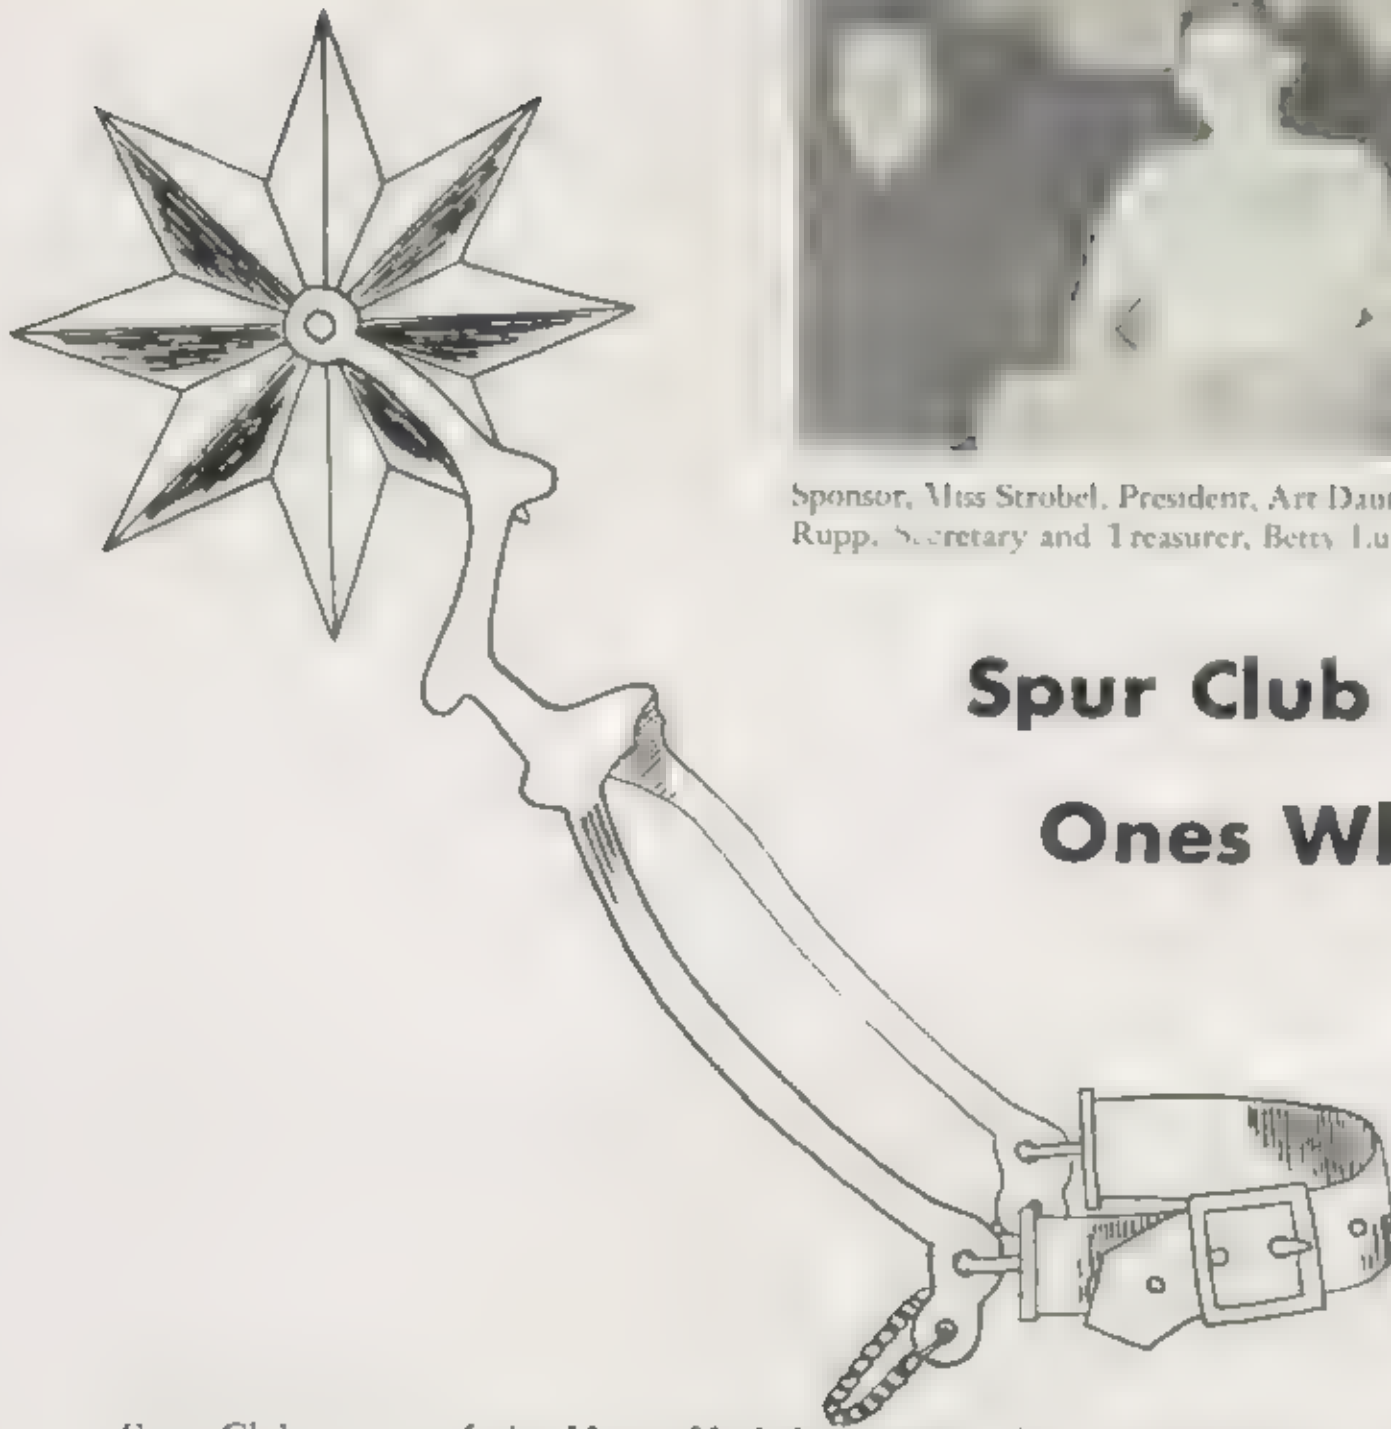

These students have attended Havre High School for at least three semesters and are in the upper portion of their classes scholastically. They were judged on three qualifications by their teachers: CHARACTER, LEADERSHIP, and SERVICE. Under these divisions they were judged on their responsibility, personality, co-operativeness, and willingness to render service. It must be emphasized that they had to qualify scholastically by being in the upper fourth of their class before they could be considered. It is indeed a great accomplishment to become a member of this society and it is something to work for during all of our high school years.

This year the awards were presented March nineteenth at a surprise assembly. The old members, four of whom were chosen from the Junior class of last year, gathered the new candidates from the audience and presented their awards with a formal ceremony. This year four members were chosen from both the Junior and Senior classes.

Spur Club Were the Ones Who Rated

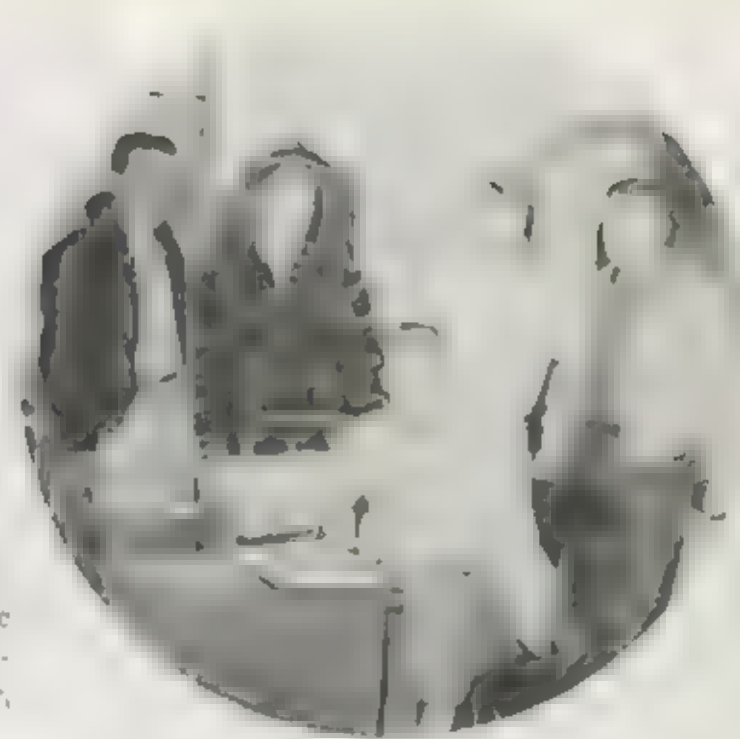

Spur Club is one of the Havre High honoraries. The requirements are a "C" average and a majority vote of the club membership. In the spring the new Spurs are honored at a general assembly where their new members are crowned and their president elect is given his gavel.

The activities of the club are sponsoring dances, decorating the Christmas tree, ushering for graduation, plays, and band concerts, and backing charity drives.

The "H" Club is an organization that you must enter by earning an athletic letter. Like all organizations it has an object, which is to bring the good sportsmanship and the purpose of sports closer to the rest of the school. They hope to bring the desire to enter athletics to others.

This year they volunteered to patrol the basketball and thus gave service to the entire school.

They have also sponsored dances and handled concessions at our games. The object for raising their money is to make possible the annual "H" Club banquet held in the spring.

We feel that they, like the other clubs, help raise the standards of our school. The sponsors are Coach Seelinger and Assistant Coach Mr. Huss.

The Key Club Puts Out Our Welcome Mat

The Key Club was headed by Clifford Higgins as President, Kennie Thomas as Vice-President, Milton Johnson as Secretary and Tak Nimi as Treasurer.

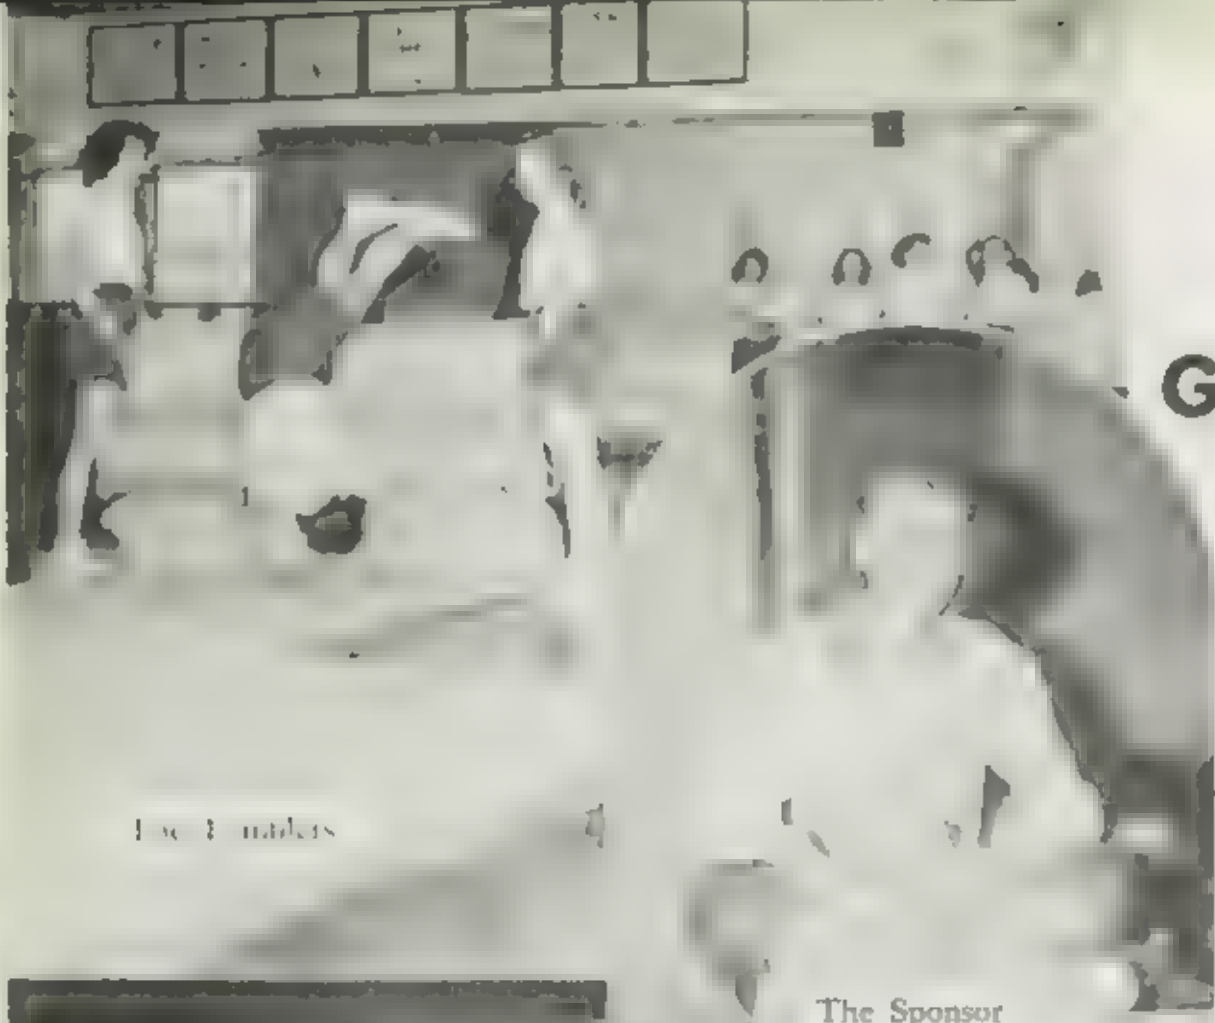

There is a board of directors who take care of small matters that come up. The five members who make up this board are Robert Bitterman, Charles Danvers, Tom Gunderson, Byron Dow and Donald Ratzloff.

The Key Club, a branch of the Kiwanis, is an honorary organization. The new members who are elected by the old members may be from the sophomore, junior and senior class.

Among the various services the club has performed are ushering at the "C" Tournament, playing elevator games for the Capped Children, Come helping new students become acquainted with the school and helping the performers of the National School Assemblies.

G.A.L. For Active Girls

The Girls' Athletic League has an enrollment of 35 members, and is under the sponsorship of Miss Betty Lou Hoffman. It has been a very popular club in Havre High School and any girl who is interested in athletics may join.

The officers elected this year are President: Frances Davey; Vice President: Karen Ikegren; Secretary: Carol Bulinger; Treasurer: Patricia Flannery.

Activities covered are tumbling, bowling, basketball, and volleyball. A group of 13 girls gave a tumbling exhibition during half time of a game held on January 27.

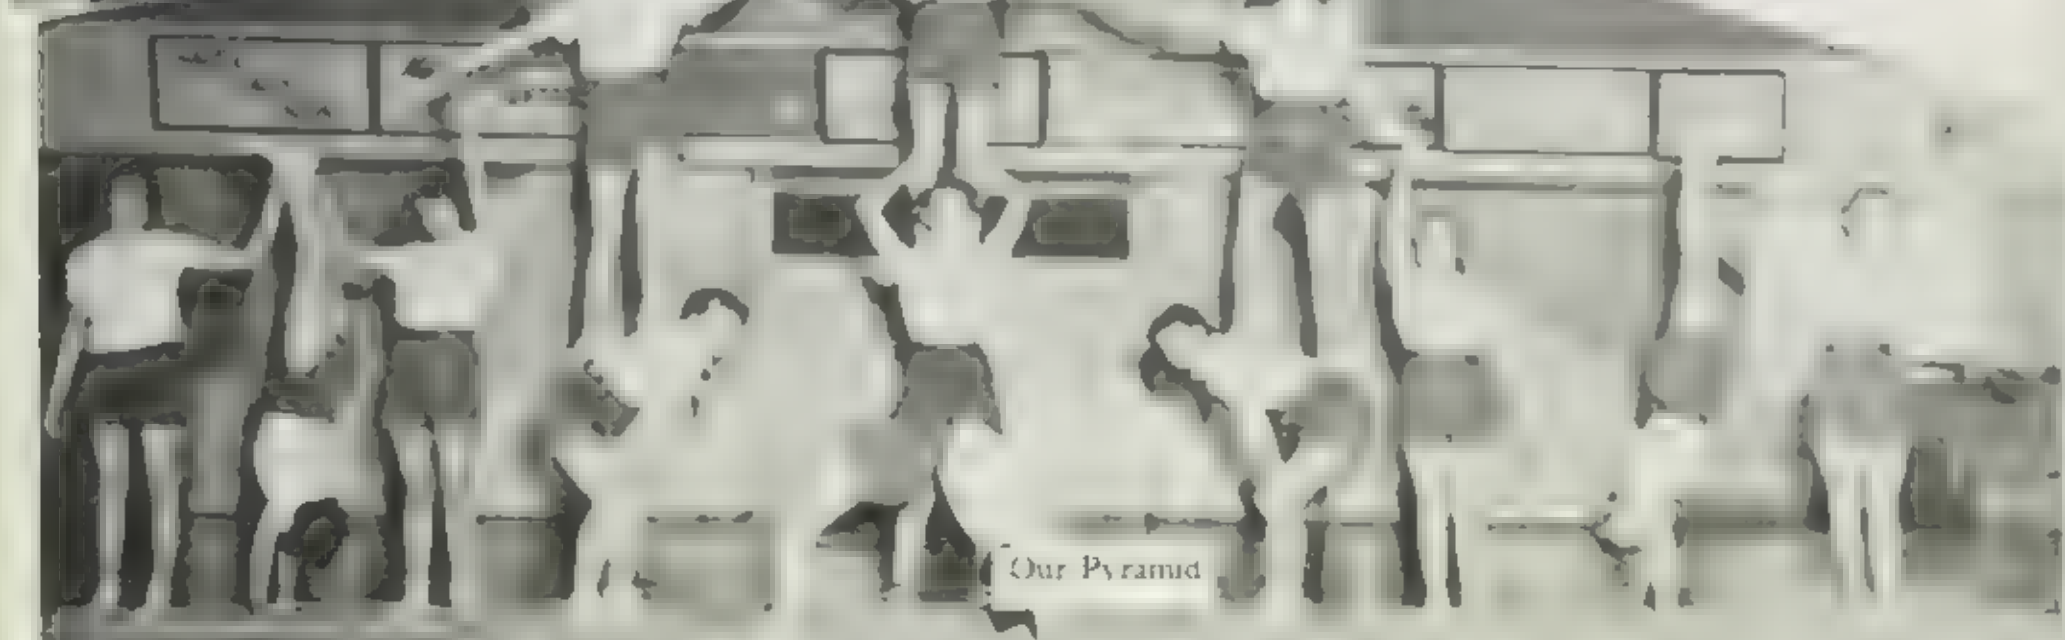

Another sport the girls participated in was bowling at which some of the girls have exceptional skill.

F.H.A. Plans for the Future

"F.H.A., F.H.A., God in His Love Enfold Thee," opens the Song we hear when we attend the Future Homemakers of America meetings. This club assembles for regular meetings the first and third Mondays of each month. Our objectives are to promote better living in home and community life. Some of our activities this year were a scavenger hunt, cany sales, and a Christmas party. Our officers were President, Lorna Faber, Vice President, Edith McMillan, Treasurer, Frances Weyh, Secretary, Julianne Perszyk, Reporter, Besse Morran, Historian, Florence Creamer, Parliamentarian, Norrine Hyatt, and Song Leader, Joan Goligoski. Our chapter mother is Mrs. Weyh.

The Neophytes

Thespian Troupe No. 869 is a branch of the Thespians, a national society for secondary schools. The local officers are Jean Godiv, president, Betty Lu Kiesling, vice-president; Marilyn Olson, treasurer; Karen Ekegren, secretary; Patricia Valadon, scribe. Members are Sheila Hart, Gene Watson, Graham Keeler, Elaine Almos, Tommy Genderson, Dwayne Roe, Katherine Wilkins, Frank and Ken and Irving Mitrany.

The purpose of this group is to foster and improve the dramatic program of the school. This year the Thespians sponsored a general dramatic club called Neophytes, and produced monthly one act plays that offered acting and other dramatic opportunities to a large number of beginners in the program.

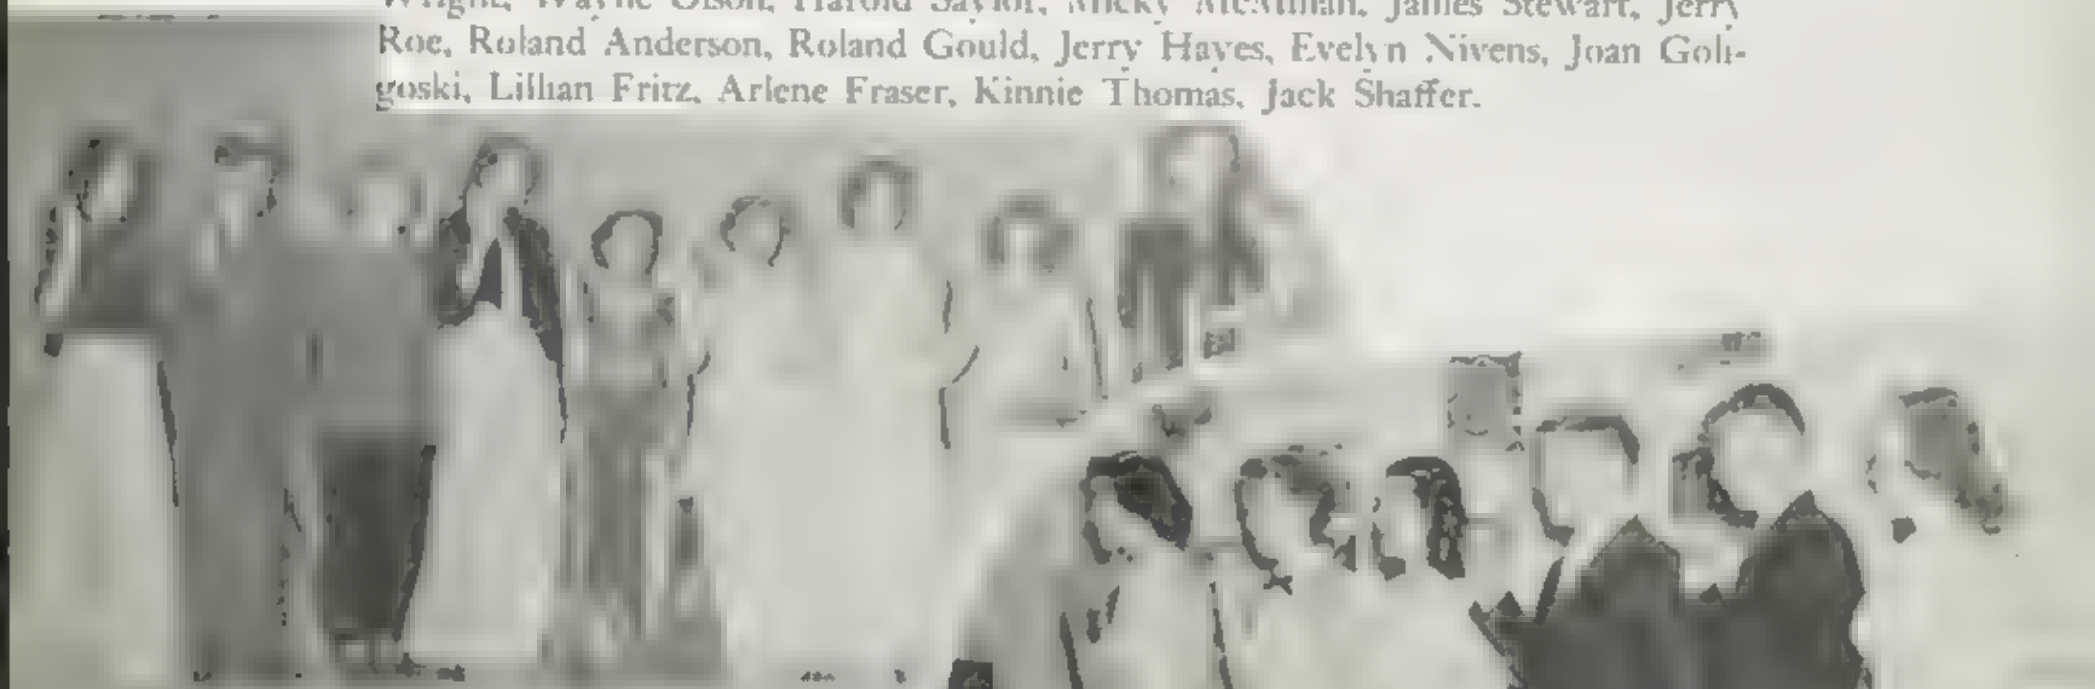

The plays produced for the public free of charge were these one-acts: Party Line, Mr. Snoop is Murdered, The Christmas Pearl, Summer Comes to the Diamond O; and these sketches: Storknut, The Ball Game, Three O'Clock in the Morning. This phase of the program also included three assembly programs.

The Thespians are to be congratulated for the personal effort expended to extend the opportunity of taking part in dramatic activities to all who are interested.

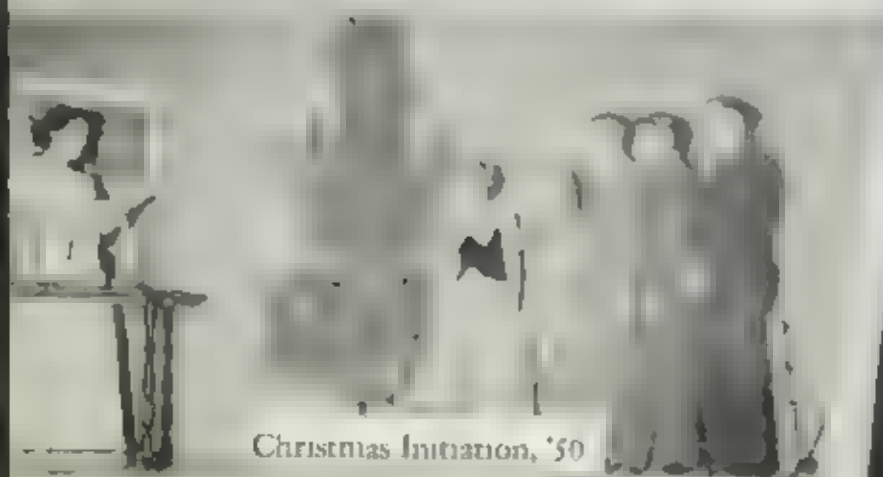

Another activity sponsored for Thespians is the Annual One Act Play Festival, in which three one act plays compete for the right to represent Havre in Missouri. The 1950 play "There's Always Tomorrow" won honors at the state meet. This year the plays produced are "Which is the Way to Boston?" "Why I Am a Bachelor," and "Undertow."

This is strictly an honorary society. Members must qualify by earning points in dramatic activities of various kinds.

How often have you heard our team called the Blue Ponies? Many times. Why have we adopted such a name? To make it popular. To bring amusement to the other schools?

Upon investigation we found among several versions of the story the one most agreed upon was, that in 1926 the Havre High football team started its practice with a light, fast team. One night as Coach Dave Morris started for football practice, he is reported to have said to one of his assistants that he would go out and drive his ponies. He applied the word "Ponies" to his players because they were so light. That name "Ponies" stuck to the team and since the color of the school was blue the two words were soon combined and the team became known as the "Blue Ponies." The 1926 football team later went on to win the State Championship Crown.

Other accounts credit the name to the Great Falls Tribune—which also used it because of the team's smallness and amazing agility.

The following people were interviewed by Tommy Gunderson to obtain this information: Adolph Kries, veteran military instructor and athletic equipment manager of Havre High School; Bo Crawford, quarterback for the 1926 state champion football team; Sverre Thoresen, printer of the Havre Daily News; and Leo Konopatzke, who attended Havre High in 1926.

Colts

The Colts had a fairly successful season with five wins and ten losses.

Havskjold, Elason, and Dave DonTigney were moved up to the Pony squad when the season was half completed. Bill Filler and George Toldness were then promoted from the Shetlands to the Colts.

Shetlands

Shetlands scored 242 points against their opponents 221. They had 26 field goals and 64 free throws against their opponents 97 field goals and 83 free throw. They averaged 40.8 against 37.7 on free throws. Shetlands averaged 34.6 points a game against their opponents' 31.6.

In all games Jacobson had most field goals, Filler second, Callaghan third, and Honadel fourth. Toldness was best free thrower, having a 75% average, however, Filler scored the most free throws sinking 12. Filler was high point man for the season with 48, Jacobson second with 47, Callaghan third with 31, and Boucher fourth with 28.

Freshmen scored 73 points against the Junior H's 86 in three games for game averages of 24.3 points and 18.7 points. They won two and lost one.

Toldness and Filler were promoted to the Co-eds at the end of the first semester. Outstanding of those finishing the year with the Shetlands were Mackay and Veck as sophomore guards, Callaghan as sophomore forward, Jacobson and Gould as freshmen forwards, Wyson and Boucher as freshmen guards, and Honadel as a freshman playing all positions.

"Tommy," a comedy in three acts under the direction of Mr. Robert Norman, takes place in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thurber—Kent Hudson and Dorene Ratzloff—Mrs. Thurber. Mrs. Thurber is a vital woman who runs her own household. She gives attention and flattery. Warren Thurber, her husband, is a snappy grocer. The two try to run the life of their daughter, Marie—Gwen Dickson, never giving her a chance to make up her own mind. Marie has a mind of her own.

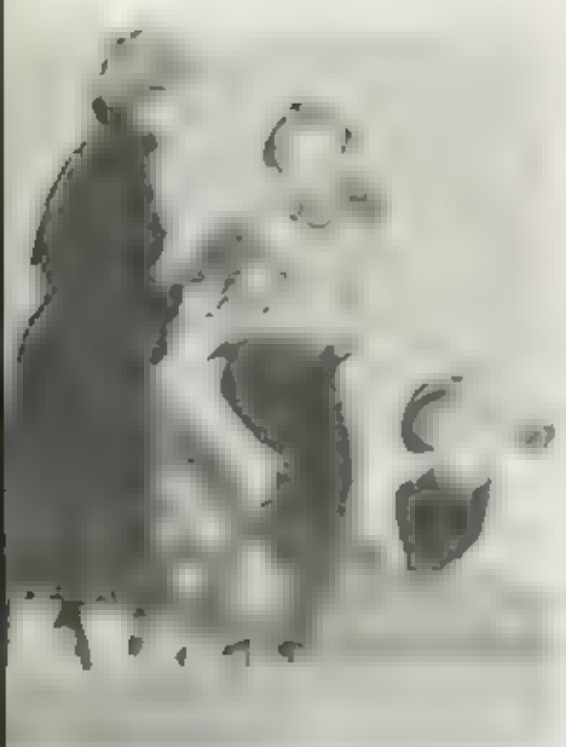

Congratulations, Mr. Norman!

The Aunts

Inner Willy

Are You Sick?

The Havre high school auditorium curtain went up on the annual all-school play on November 17 when Mr. Swenson, director, presented the three act farce, "Inner Willy." The cast was made up of Dwayne Roe, Betty Lu Kiesling, Karen Ekegren, Tom Gunderson, Wayne Olson, Graham Keeler, Barbara Coday, Frances Guy, Janet Kennedy, Kathy Wilkins, and Marilyn Olson.

Bunky Fortin carried a heavy load as student director. Working as co-chairmen in the business management department were Jean Coday and Rosalie Sylte. This included rounding up furniture, costumes, and selling tickets.

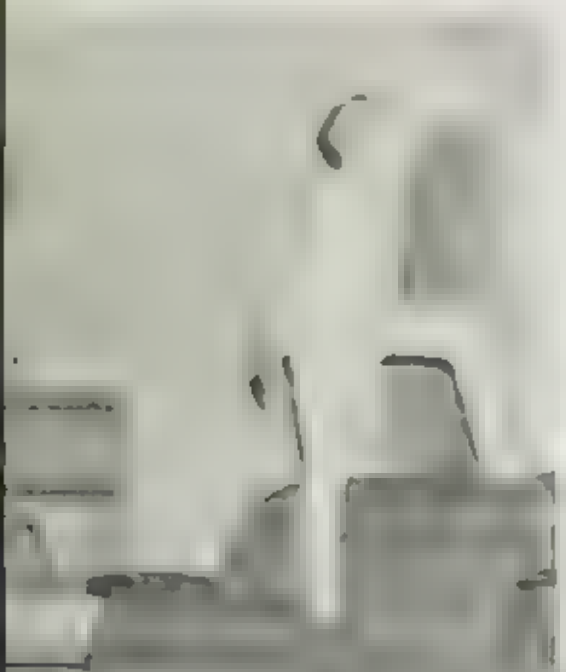

"Head barkers" and press agents were Nancy Grover and Edith McMillan. They had Donna Brown, Sara Baker, JoAnne Gallus, Donna Lu Nelson, and Genny Tautges in there pitching with them.

It looked like the make-up committee would be in for a tremendous job, but they had the help of Mrs. Ekegren and the dramatics club. Their helpers were Connie Steuck, Mary Travis, Joan Larson and Judy Elliott.
